SERVICE

Snow removal service will begin as specified by you, the client, regardless of the time of day or night or or the day of the week, unless otherwise agreed upon. Pre-paid and recurring clientele will be serviced first, followed by emergency and single-service calls.

Sandpoint Snow Removal will provide its own employees, equipment and supplies necessary to complete the services described.

Sandpoint Snow Removal will not service within 3-feet of any vehicle, building or other stationary object using our plow truck. Sandpoint Snow Removal is not liable for any damage that may occur to the pavement, gravel, sod or other surfaces contracted for service, including but not limited to road-heaving, potholes, erosion or any other damage caused by natural winter conditions.

Please note that icy or slippery conditions may exist even after work is completed. Sandpoint Snow Removal is not responsible for any type of injury, death, loss or damage of or to persons or property by reasons of non-performance of our obligations.
